They state too that day there were 16 prisonorfined there, 7 white and 9 colorfour of whom were lunated unable get admission to the asylums. The ctors recommend some new beds and bedding for some of the cells; arrangements be made for the disof slops and waste water; that new gratings be placed at some of the and windows; that water be the plumbing in the water closet the yard be repaired; that gas be ed in the residence portion of the ding; that the roof be repaired; new be be placed at the main entrance; ast spouting be renewed and the wali

TO OUR READERS .- A glance at the azette's advertising columns will be of iventage to the shoppers in city and ountry. The merchants whose adversements appear have large and wellelected stocks of goods and are selling em at most ressonable prices, being all-fied with moderate profits. Shopers can take the Gazette and before oing on the streets can read its advermente, giving not only the articles by various merchants, but many cases the prices of the same, and thus they are enabled to go straight to this or that store and complete their baying. In nearly every instance perans who read the papers buy from those merchants who advertise and we advise the subscribers of the Gazette to read its advertisements.
